

NOVEMBER IS NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

*ALL STUDENTS, FACULTY, AND STAFF ARE INVITED!
LUNCH AND LEARN SERIES IN THE LIBRARY*

Every Tuesday and Thursday, beginning October 30 12:00 - 1:30 (Attendees not required to stay after 1:00 pm)

Oct. 30: PBS Video

We Shall Remain, "After the Mayflower" explores how peaceful encounters with early settlers turned to hostility

Nov. 13: PBS Video

We Shall Remain, "The Trail of Tears" tells the story of one of the most tragic events in American History

Nov. 1: TED Talk and discussion

"Ute Wisdom, Language, and Creation Story," an alternate expression of how the world was created

Nov. 15: TED Talk and discussion

"Native Youth are More than Statistics" with guest speaker, Lucy Harrison, former Director of American Indian Health & Family Services of SEMI

Nov. 6: PBS Video

We Shall Remain, "Tecumseh's Vision," a mythic story of a spiritual transformation turned social movement

Nov. 27: PBS Video

We Shall Remain, "Wounded Knee" details the circumstances leading to and the aftermath of this tragic battle

Nov. 8: Celebrate Michigan, "King Arthur in North America" and a thought-provoking discussion, led by Fr. Charles Morris, about how archeological evidence may be changing history

Nov. 29: TED Talk and discussion

"America's Native Prisoners of War," this powerful piece caps the series by connecting Lakota history to issues affecting Native communities today

