What was Jesus like as a child?

After his infancy and escape to Egypt, there is only one, brief Gospel story about Jesus as a youth (Luke 2:41-52). But now, there’s a Biblical novel based on those 12 verses.

“Three Days: The Search for the Boy Messiah”

Catholic author and EMMY-Award winning producer-director, Chris Stepien, will share the spiritual journey that led him to walk with preteen Jesus. Make a pilgrimage in your heart.

When: Thursday, May 15, 2014 @ 1 PM

Where: Madonna University Library
36600 Schoolcraft Road
Livonia, MI 48150

Parking in front of Kresge Hall

For details, please contact:
734-432-5679
edecenso@madonna.edu

Join the author to explore this puzzling Passover event in the life of the boy Messiah, the 5th Joyful Mystery of the Rosary. Books will be available for purchase and author signing. Learn more at: www.TheBoyMessiah.com

“… a highly entertaining work of historical fiction … that can only deepen one’s faith.”

Robert Delaney, The Michigan Catholic

It’s a story for the child in all of us.

“… become like children …” (Matthew 18:3)